

Student Agreement – Departure after Academic Warning

Student Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Purpose: To document the Student’s understanding of the requirements of Florida Southern College (the “College”) in order for the Student to be readmitted to the College after a student withdraws or attempts to return following a period away from the college with a grade point average of 2.0 or below.

Process - Before a readmission can be considered

Students must agree to and complete the following for a readmission request to be considered.

- a. Student acknowledges that while Florida Southern College cares about your academic progress and well-being, it is the student's responsibility to take responsibility for their academic success.
b. When resuming classes, student agrees to proactively take advantage of academic and student life resources, including but not limited to, appointments with faculty and academic advisors, academic coaching, tutoring sessions, wellness initiatives, mentoring, etc., to afford themselves every opportunity to succeed in their selected coursework.
c. To submit a statement, of no fewer than 250 words, clearly indicating how they will be successful, including what tools, resources, and support systems they will utilize, upon return to the College.
d. Student understands that readmission is not guaranteed and the College will take into consideration an evaluation of the student’s academic progress during their time away from Florida Southern College. Students are strongly encouraged to show proof of academic success, typically in the form of coursework, achieved elsewhere before returning.
e. To comply with any other requirements imposed by the College based on the Student’s particular situation or requirements which might be applicable to the Student Handbook.

Student Statement

The College is committed to your success and cares deeply about your transition back to the College. To best evaluate your potential for success, please clearly indicate what tools, resources, support systems, and accommodations you will utilize upon return to the College. Please feel free to use additional space on the back of this document.
